

The ten passion questions.

FOCUS RESOURCES

What do you love to do and that gives you the greatest joy?

If you pursued your passions, what type of legacy would you love to leave for others to enjoy?

If all your financial needs were met and you earned the same amount of money you currently make, what would you love to do with your time, energy and skills?

What do you do to recharge your batteries?

What activity do you do that passes the time away the fastest?

What is most important to you to do, that is meaningful and means the world to you?

What gives your life greater meaning?

What makes your heart sing and gives you a full happy heart?

What do you love to do in your spare time?

If I could pay you the $1,000,000 per year, tell me the job you would love to do, or what would you love to create or build, or what service you would provide to others, or how you would make your world, your family's world and our world a better place?
